

Saturday
 October 24, 2015
 9AM to 1PM
 Knapp Center for Biomedical
 Discovery
 First Floor Auditorium
 The University of Chicago
 900 E. 57th Street
 Chicago, Illinois

Three Lectures, Demonstrations & Lab Tours

Brain Awareness Day

Open for the public. Registration is required at <http://contechicago.org/news-events/events/brain-awareness-day-2015-registration>. Teachers are eligible to earn ISBE credit. Lunch for attendees will be provided. Parking is nearby.

Nicholas Grahame, Ph.D., *Indiana University—Purdue University Indianapolis

Behavior, Genetics, and the Risk for Alcoholism

Eva Redei, Ph.D., *Northwestern University

Depression Is a Disease; Insight Into the Future

Erik Jorgensen, Ph.D., *University of Utah & Howard Hughes Medical Institute

Chemical Mind: The Battle of Thermopylae & the Discovery of Anesthetics

CONTE CENTER
 FOR COMPLEXITY, SYSTEMS BIOLOGY, AND GENOMICS nature & nurture, remodeled

Genes and Addiction
NIDA Center for GWAS in Outbred Rats

Questions? Contact:
 Barry Aprison, Ph.D.
 Institute for Genomics & Systems Biology
 bapriso@bsd.uchicago.edu
 773-834-2787